The Southern Railway people ought to bring a mental anguish suit against the News and Observer.

Count Cassini says the Russians have no prejudice against the Jews. No, it isn't prejudice, it's downright hatred.

The Anglers' Ananias Association of Wilmington are now preparing a new volume of fish stories. They are said to be strong as lye.

Senator Quay announces another farewell to politics. This will doubtless go into effect when he dies; and whether or not he will fare well after that is an open question.

HAYWOOD GETS BAIL.

Opinion Read in Habeas Corpus Hearing at Raleigh Yesterday at Noon.

$10,000 IS THE AMOUNT.

Bond Promptly Given and Liberated Prisoner Went to the Home of His Aged Mother—Applause in the Court Room Rebuked by Judge.

[Special Star Telegram.]

Raleigh, N. C., June 3.—It was an immense and eager crowd that greeted the Justices when they entered the Court House at noon to-day to announce their decision in the Haywood habeas corpus hearing, and pent-up interest burst out in sound applause that subsided only at the harsh reprimand from the court officers when, in reading his opinion, Justice Douglas came to the section where the statement was made. "We are of the opinion that, as the case is presented to us, under the rule laid down in State vs. Herndon, 107 N. C., 934, the petitioner is entitled to bail."

When the applause started the Judge rapped sharply for order.

"Sheriff," said he, "no demonstration must be allowed."

Within twenty minutes after the decree of court for bail the bond was signed up and accepted, each of six of the signers qualifying as worth over the ten thousand bond. Of the bondsmen, A. W. Haywood, Dr. Hubert Haywood, William Sanders (Johnson county), H. E. Litchford, Joseph F. Ferrell and Edgar Haywood qualified at ten thousand each. W. Z. Blake, C. T. Bailey, $2,500 each, and Dr. F. J. Haywood, $5,000. The aggregate was $70,000, qualified to secure $10,000 bond.

As soon as the bond was filed a crowd of friends pressed around Haywood shaking hands. His face overspread with a bright smile, almost the first since the trial began. As soon as he could get out of the crowd he and his three brothers took a carriage and drove directly to the home of his aged mother, on Newbern avenue, where the news of her son's liberation had already been telephoned and she was awaiting their coming.

The demonstrations attending the closing scenes of the hearing demonstrate a great revolution in public sentiment since the evidence in the case was developed.

The finding of justifiable homicide by the jury at the trial in July is generally expected.

THE ELKS' REUNION.

Third Annual Gathering of the North Carolina Association at Wrightsville Beach.

FEATURES OF THE FIRST DAY.

Fantastic Ocean Parade Interrupted by Rain—Final Meeting With Ball and Banquet To-day—Address of Welcome and Response.

The third annual reunion of North Carolina Elks is now in progress at Wrightsville Beach, the opening meeting having been called to order yesterday morning in the Seashore Hotel ball room. The attendance is much smaller than was expected, due to the near approach of the annual meeting of the Grand Lodge at Baltimore and also to the cool weather. However, the lack of attendance is made up in a measure by the enthusiasm of those present and the local Elks are doing all in their power to give the visitors a good time. Representatives are here from the lodges at Charlotte, Goldsboro, Raleigh, Kinston and Newbern, and perhaps others may arrive this morning.

The Association was called to order yesterday morning by President B. S. Davis, of Charlotte. Among those on the stage were Exalted Rulers Ike W. Solomon, of Wilmington, and A. A. Joseph, of Goldsboro; Past Exalted Ruler Wm. J. Bellamy, Director General Wm. F. Robertson and Secretary Jno. R. Turrentine, Jr., of Wilmington.

Mr. Wm. J. Bellamy in behalf of the local lodge delivered a warm and hearty address of welcome, extending the hospitality of the Cape Fear section. Major Robertson introduced Deputy Grand Marshal Hamilton W. Wilson, of Charlotte, who made a happy and brilliant response on behalf of the visitors. His bright talk created enthusiasm.

Mr. A. A. Joseph made a flattering report of the Goldsboro lodge.

Mr. H. W. Wilson, of Charlotte, complimented Maj. Robertson on his able services as director general. Maj. Robertson expressed his gratification at the laudatory remarks in his usual pleasing manner.

Secretary Turrentine read the minutes of the meetings at Charlotte and Asheville.

Mr. Osmond L. Barringer, of Charlotte, nominated Mr. W. A. Mabry, of Durham, for the office of District Deputy and he received the unanimous endorsement of the convention. Mr. W. J. Bellamy placed in nomination Mr. C. F. Tomlinson, of Winston, for Grand Esteemed Lecturing Knight and he also, received unanimous endorsement. The secretary was instructed to so notify the Grand Lodge.

The meeting then adjourned until 10:30 this morning.

The fantastic parade on the beach that was scheduled for the afternoon was interrupted by the weather and was called off. But many took a plunge in the ocean despite the unfavorable weather and seemed to enjoy it. Last evening the main amusement feature was the vaudeville performance at The Casino and the ranks were swelled by a number of local Elks, who went down on the cars early in the evening.

To-day's programme will be most interesting. The second business session will be held at 10:30 A. M., at which time the annual election of officers will be held, and the place for the next reunion will be decided upon. At 3:30 P. M. a trolley ride to the city and around town will be enjoyed. An informal ball will be held at the Seashore Hotel to-night at 8 o'clock, and the closing feature of the reunion will be the banquet in Seashore dining room. Mr. H. McL. Green will be the toast master and all local Elks are invited.

The midnight song will be, "Can You Go Home, Bill Bailey."

All Elks that can possibly do so are requested to attend the business session this morning and to the dance to-night the Wilmington young ladies are cordially invited.

The visiting Elks came up to the city after the Casino performance last night and were entertained at the club by the local antlers.

New Method of Turpentining.

Through the courtesy of the Hon. John H. Small, Mr. W. E. Worth has placed on file at the Chamber of Commerce a pamphlet issued by the U. S. Department of Agriculture entitled, "A New Method of Turpentine Orcharding," giving numerous illustrations of the old and new method of preparing the trees and gathering the turpentine. The pamphlet is of material interest to this section and every man engaged in the business of producing turpentine should see it. The illustrations show clearly the increased saving by the new method.

Stabbing at Delgado.

On the shell road near Delgado village about 11 o'clock Tuesday night Louis Crawford, a young white man who formerly worked for the telephone companies in Wilmington, severely stabbed John Hanna, an operative in the mill, back of the left shoulder. The stabbing was the result of a quarrel earlier in the day. The wounded man was attended by Dr. R. E. Zachary and Crawford made his escape. He is the same young man who recently caused much indignation among citizens who saw him violently assault an old man at Front and Princess streets.

COAST LINE WRECK.

Conductor and Four Passengers Were Killed, While Many Were Injured.

NEGRO EXCURSION TRAIN.

Ran Into Washout Near Wedgefield, S. C. Capt. J. J. Clemmons a Former Resident of Wilmington—Funeral Will Be Held Here.

Particulars of the terrible wreck of a colored excursion train on the Atlantic Coast Line, near Wedgefield, S. C., in which Conductor J. J. Clemmons, formerly of this city, and four passengers lost their lives, while twenty-five were more or less injured, are given in the telegraphic columns of to-day's Star and there is little, if anything, to add to the story of the awful disaster.

The first news of the wreck reached the city through telegrams to Coast Line headquarters here and relief and wrecking trains were immediately dispatched from Sumter, Columbia, Florence and Wilmington. The one from here carried to the scene Superintendent W. N. Royall and later in the afternoon another special took a number of other officials.

There were all sorts of wild rumors in the city during the day about the extent of the accident until the following bulletin was issued from headquarters early in the forenoon:

"Colored excursion train in charge of Conductor Clemmons and Engineman Geo. Wilson, Nichols to Columbia, ran into washout about two miles north of Wedgefield. Full particulars at this time have not been received. Reports now on hand indicate that Conductor Clemmons was killed; Engineman Wilson badly injured; four passengers killed and about 25 slightly injured. Train consisted of engine, baggage car and 4 coaches. Engine, baggage car and two coaches were derailed. Special trains from Sumter and Columbia, S. C., including wreck train from Florence were immediately sent to the scene of the wreck and every attention given those injured that could be possibly rendered."

Nichols is a small station on the W. C., & A. road, about 65 miles from Wilmington, and Wedgefield is only a short distance from Columbia, Capt. W. L. Harlow, who brought in the regular train from Columbia, S. C. yesterday afternoon, passed over, a few hours before, the same trestle into which Capt. Clemmons, train dashed.

The news of Capt. Clemmons, death was received with the greatest sorrow here, where he lived until about three years ago when he removed with his family to Florence, S. C. His regular runs were from Florence to Augusta, Ga., and from Florence to Wadesboro.

Capt. Clemmons was a son of Capt. J. H. Clemmons, of Southport, and was 41 years of age. He was a man of very high character and above reproach. To make his acquaintance was to be his friend and his popularity was perhaps as wide as that of any conductor in the employ of the Coast Line. For several years he was employed in the store of Mr. N. B. Rankin of this city. He was a consistent member of the Baptist church and was at one time elected a deacon of the First Church, this city.

Capt. Clemmons married Miss Giralda Taylor, daughter of the late Jos. W. Taylor, of Wilmington, and she with five children, the oldest 12 years of age, survive him. The children are Master Roger and James and little Misses Nellie, Flora and Lida. Capt. Clemmons is also survived by a brother, Mr. W. J. Clemmons, a popular shoe salesman at the store of Messrs. Geo. H. French & Son, this city, and Mrs. J. J. Adkins, of Southport. Mr. W. J. Clemmons left yesterday for Florence for the purpose of accompanying the remains of his brother to Wilmington to-day for burial, and Mrs. Alex. S. Holden, sister of the bereaved wife, left to be with the family in their sorrow. Other members of the family will reach Florence and Wilmington to-day, among them being Mrs. Clemmons' sisters, Mrs. W. H. Newell, of Norfolk; Mrs. J. A. Jones, of Autreyville, N. C.; Mrs. J. F. Owens, of Hahira, Ga., Mrs. J. D. McEachern, of Jacksonville, Fla., and their mother, Mrs. J. W. Taylor, of Hahira, Ga. The remains will reach Wilmington on the train arriving from the South at 1:40 P. M. to-day.

Capt. Clemmons was a charter member of Clarendon Lodge No. 2, K. of P., of this city, but had removed his membership to Harmony Lodge No. 8, of Florence, upon his removal to that city. He was also a member of the Endowment Rank, K. of P. and carried $2,000 insurance in that order. All Pythians of the city are requested to meet at their hall this afternoon for the purpose of attending the funeral services in a body.

The funeral will be conducted from the A. C. L. station by the Rev. W. B. Oliver, immediately upon the arrival of the train this afternoon and the remains will be interred in Bellevue cemetery.

Telephone Company to Sell.

Under foreclosure proceedings by J. B. Schulken, Esq., trustee, all the property, rights, franchises, etc., of the Columbus Telephone Co., of Whiteville, will be sold at public auction at the court house door of Columbus county, on the first Monday in July. The company is now operating lines in Columbus, Bladen, Brunswick and New Hanover counties, particularly that one connecting Wilmington and Southport with an exchange in the latter city.

IN GREEN AND WHITE.

Beautiful Wedding Ceremony in the First Baptist Church Yesterday Afternoon.

MISS TAYLOR TO MR. WEEKS.

Rev. Will B. Oliver Officiated and There Was a Large Assemblage of Friends. An Extended Bridal Tour North. Brief Reception at Home.

A beautiful white and green wedding was celebrated yesterday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock in the First Baptist church when Miss Anne McLaurin Taylor, the attractive young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Holland Taylor, of this city, was led to the altar by Mr. Cebrun Daniel Weeks, a prominent young attorney at the Wilmington bar, and they were made man and wife in a beautiful service pronounced by Rev. Will B. Oliver, of Florence, S. C., the bride's former pastor.

The church had been transformed into a veritable palace of beauty by the skilful handiwork of Rehder, the florist, and the marriage scene was beautiful indeed. The pulpit had been moved back and the altar was banked with palms and white hydrangers. The ceilings were draped with smilax, studded with white bows of straw and the chandeliers were festooned also with smilax. The choir loft was made beautiful with a unique arrangement of palms and other flowers and from there as the guests were assembling, Mrs. J. D. Edwards sang with charming effect "O! Promise Me," and a quartette composed of Mrs. Edwards, soprano; Mrs. F. A. Muse, contralto; Mr. Chas. Dushan, tenor, and Mr. W. H Alderman, bass, followed with a beautiful rendition of "Rose Maiden." Miss Cannie Chasten played the wedding marches and accompaniments in graceful and delightful manner.

The wedding party entered to the bridal chorus from Lohengrin. First came two ushers down each aisle, Messrs. Geo. L. Peschau, R. G. Grady, W. R. Taylor, of Wilmington, and Will Faucette. Next came the maid of honor, Miss Mary Belle Taylor, sister of the bride, down the east aisle, followed by the bride with her father. The groom with his best man, Mr. Pritchard S. Carlton, of Warsaw, entered from the pastor's study, and was joined by the bride at the altar.

During the ceremony Miss Chasten played softly and with exquisite touch "The Angels' Serenade," and as the party left the church, it was to the strains of Mendelsohn's wedding march.

The bride was charmingly dressed in white organdie with point lace trimming and carried a lovely shower bouquet of bride's roses, lilies of the valley and asparagus tied with white chiffon. The maid of honor was beautifully gowned in white organdie with green sash and carried a bouquet of white carnations and asparagus, tied with white satin ribbon.

The ushers wore the conventional black suits with white vests and pearl gray gloves and boutonnieres of white carnations, backed with green leaves.

Following the ceremony the party went to the home of the bride's parents, No. 619 Grace street, where a brief reception was held. The young couple left on the north bound A. C. L. train for an extensive bridal tour North. They were accompanied to the station by many young friends who showered them with best wishes and the proverbial rice in token thereof.

The bride received many handsome wedding presents.

Tax Listing in Progress.

Tax listing at the City Hall for both the city and county is progressing rather more rapidly than usual. Mr. T. O. Bunting, the county lister, has for his assistants, Messrs. Wm. Blanks and Mr. W. A. Williams, while Capt. A. L. DeRosset, the city lister, is assisted by Messrs. Thos. G. Pickett and Robert H. Cowan. The office hours for listing are 9 A. M. to 1 P. M., and 3 to 5 P. M. on all days except Fridays and Saturdays. On Friday half holiday is taken and on Saturday the the afternoon hours are extended to 6 P. M.

To Consider Labor Question.

At the regular meeting of the Chamber of Commerce this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock the question of negro labor organization will be taken up for consideration and resolutions will probably be adopted, outlining the sentiment of the commercial interests of the city toward the union, recently organized here. It is probable that Capt. E. G. Parmele, business agent of the organization, will be present and make a statement as to the purposes and objects of the union. The Executive Committee of the Chamber will meet 15 minutes earlier than the general meeting.

Will Be Buried Here.

The remains of Jean, the little daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Geo. C. Worth, whose sad death of diphtheria in New York was chronicled in these columns yesterday morning, will arrive at 10:10 o'clock this morning and will be interred in Oakdale cemetery after funeral services at the grave. The little girl would have been two years old next month and the bereavement of the devoted parents is indeed sad. Only a short time ago they lost another child and were just preparing when the present death came, to resume their missionary work in China.

— Mr. H. A. Kure and family have moved to Carolina Beach for the season.

A PRETTY CEREMONY.

Miss Christina M. Hintze Became the Bride of Mr. G. F. G. Tienken.

ST. PAUL'S LUTHERAN CHURCH

Popular Young People Joined in Marriage by Rev. Dr. A. G. Voigt Last Night. Brilliant Reception Following. Many Presents Received.

Saint Paul's Evangelical Lutheran church, Sixth and Market streets, presented a beautiful scene last night at 8:30 o'clock, the occasion having been the marriage of Miss Christina M. Hintze, the adopted daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Tienken, to their nephew, Mr. G. F. G. Tienken, a popular young business man of this city. The interior of the church was superbly decorated by Rehder Bros. the florists, and the assemblage of fashionably clad guests and other environments, were pretty indeed. The pulpit had been moved back and the altar banked with pink hydrangers, sword ferns and fancy leaf calladiums. Around and back of the pulpit was a charming arrangement of stately palms, while all the windows were banked with plants and flowers. Garlands were suspended from the ceiling and caught up with white bows.

At the hour appointed for the ceremony the wedding party entered from the front of the church down the main aisle to the inspiring music of the bridal chorus from Lohengrin as delightfully rendered by the organist, Miss Kate Stolter. First came in a pair the ushers, Messrs. E. B. Haar and Geo. Schutte, followed by the groomsmen, Messrs. Chas. L. Schulken and Henry Mohr; next, the bridesmaids in pairs, Misses Emma Schutte, Katie Fick, Katie Mohr, and Clara Voigt, followed by the maid of honor, Miss Fredericka Martens; the groom and his brother, Mr. F. Tienken, best man, and the bride leaning upon the arm of her father, Mr. M. G. Tienken. The party gracefully formed about the altar, the bride joining the groom in front of the pastor, the Rev. Dr. A. G. Voigt, who made them man and wife according to the beautiful service of the Lutheran church. The bride was given away by her father. The party left the church to the strains of the ever-popular Mendelsohn's Wedding March.

The wedding was in pink, white and green. The bride wore a becoming gown of white organdie, trimmed with Mechlin lace and satin ribbon. Her ornaments were diamonds and she carried a lovely shower bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley, tied with white chiffon and asparagus. The maid of honor wore a beautiful costume of white organdie over green silk and carried pink carnations caught with pink satin ribbon. The bridesmaids wore mousseline de swiss over green and carried bouquets of white carnations and asparagus, tied with white satin ribbon. The male attendants wore the conventional black suits, with boutonnieres of white carnations.

After the ceremony the wedding guests repaired to Germania Hall, where an elaborate reception was in progress until after midnight. The bride and groom received under a handsome arch of bamboo and Marchal Niel roses, assisted by the bridal party. Dancing was in progress during the early part of the night, followed by a sumptuous wedding supper, served on long tables forming the initial letters of the happy young couple.

Many handsome presents were received as were also a number of congratulatory telegrams from friends in the North.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

THURSDAY MORNING, JUNE 4.

A WHITE MAN'S COLONY.

Savannah News: There are those who have the idea that white labor cannot be successfully employed in agriculture in the South. It is an error, of course; nevertheless there are those who believe it. Another belief that has many adherents is that the presence of the colored people in the South keeps out of this section a desirable class of white immigrants from the Northern and Western States and from abroad. It is a fact that the South has not had the benefit of any considerable amount of immigration during many years, and that her growth has been principally from within—the natural increase of her population. There have been some few colonies planted in the South, to be sure, and a dripping-in of immigration, but there has been nothing like the great tide that has flowed to the Middle West and the Northwest for quite a long time.

A colony company has been recently formed which has for its purposes the demonstration of the fact that white labor can be profitably employed on Southern farms, and to ascertain if it is true that the presence of the negroes is a bar to the more rapid settlement and development of the country. The company has purchased a tract of fertile lands in Alabama, the area being almost as great as that of the State of Rhode Island. On this land it is proposed to plant a distinctively white man's colony. Each person who is permitted to settle on it must give a guarantee that he will employ white help solely—on the farm, in the kitchen and everywhere else about the premises. On its part the company will guarantee that lands shall be sold only to white settlers. Thus the matter of race antipathy on the part of European whites and whites from the North and West will be put to the test. Settlers in the proposed colony will not come into contact with the black people except in so far as they may themselves densire it, nor will they come into competition with them as laborers. In the Alabama settlement the whites will be separated from the blacks as effectually as they are in Minnesota. The experiment is one that will be watched with interest.

There is room and abundant opportunity for fortune in the South for tens of thousands of thrifty, industrious white immigrants. There are no richer lands in the world than those of this section. Once get the tide of immigration started in this direction and it would flow in steadily, almost of its own volition. But getting it started is the trouble. It may be that this Alabama experiment will be of assistance in getting the movement started.

FEAR OF LIGHTNING.

Atlanta Journal: There is a curious psychological distinction which divides people into two classes—those who are afraid of thunder and lightning, and those who are not. As a general rule, women belonging to the former class and men to the latter, but one frequently meets with women who are lacking in this fear, and men who have it strongly marked. It may be safely stated that fear of lightning is the rule and the lack of it is the exception, in both sexes, though the stronger sex makes a more uniform endeavor to conceal it. The trait is not one to be ashamed of, and does not necessarily betoken any lack of real courage, being nervous rather than mental or moral. In some cases persons devoid of this truly natural instinct—an instinct which in prehistoric times led the caveman to seek refuge in his cavern—will expose themselves in the most foolhardy manner, rushing out on verandas and even standing under trees during the most dangerous thunderstorms.

The lightning is the commonest and the most impressive of Nature's electrical displays. On account of its mystery and violence, it has from the remotest times been regarded as a direct action of divine power. So we find the Greeks calling their supreme deity, Zeus, "the thunderer," and the Romans making mention of "Jupiter tonans." Similarly, the Old Testament frequently associated lightning and thunder with the Almighty. Through the middle ages, and up to the early part of the last century, this reverence for thunder as a divine manifestation continued.

Now that electrical discovery has referred these phenomena to purely natural causes and has to a large extent explained away the mystery of the lightning, there is a tendency to err in the opposite direction. People seem to forget that these phenomena are no less manifestations of divine power because they are known to be produced by a difference of electrical potential between the earth and the upper atmosphere. God works through laws, in deed, but no less surely and nor less designedly than if he wrought or wrote with his own finger. The essential imminence of God in Nature is a truth which has been temporarily obscured, but which clearer vision and more profound knowledge is now daily revealing.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—— Governor Pennypacker says he doesn't read the papers, but evidently he looks at the pictures. He is like Mark Twain when he first saw the can-can danced in France; he covered his eyes with his hands, but he looked through his fingers.—Charleston (S. C.) Post.

The expressions of degenerates like Newton Dwight Hillis and Moncure D. Conway regarding the so-called negro problem merely make Southerners smile. The man who has no pride of race is on a par with the animal that has no preservative instinct against the crossing of the species.—Memphis Commercial Appeal.

——If the price of pig iron is an unfailing sign of industrial conditions, it seems that the corner has been turned in the long boom this country has enjoyed. Four cuts, aggregating $2.75 per ton, have occurred since March, but the price is still $2 higher than it was a year ago. Steel billets are said to sell sometimes now $2 or $3 below the ruling figure. The fact, however, that the price of pig is still $2 above what it was a year ago, shows that the line of prosperity remains high. Till recently large quantities of iron were being bought abroad in spite of the tariff, owing to the insistent demand here, notwithstanding our enormous production. With lower prices the disposition of railroads to defer purchases may be changed and business will continue brisk.—Baltimore Sun:

—— A great many of the papers in the country look upon Hanna's agreement to allow the Ohio Republican convention to endorse Roosevelt as a "back down," but we do not see it in that light, because we think it will be admitted that Hanna could have carried his point if he had chosen to do so, and he only desisted from his purpose at the urgent telegraphic solicitation of the President; and the very manner of his making the announcement that he would agree to the endorsement showed that he did so as a favor. It is a long time off yet before the Presidential campaign is to begin, and an endorsement now does not necessarily mean that it will hold good when an endorsement means something.—Columbia Record.

FIRE AT BELFIELD, VA.

Part of the Business Section Destroyed.

Loss About $30,000.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

RICHMOND, VA., June 3.—A large portion of the business section of North Emporia (Belfield) was entirely destroyed by fire last night. The fire originated in the building occupied by Messrs. J. E. Mayes, H. W. Lamb, the Cato Collier Company and others, and swept Main street from the storehouse of W. B. Cato to the building of E. A. Hartley & Brother. It is estimated that the gross loss is about $30,000, with probably $7,000 or $8,000 insurance.

Worst of All Experiences.

Can anything be worse than to feel that every minute will be your last? Such was the experience of Mrs. S. H. Newson, of Decatur, Ala. "For three years," she writes, "I endured insufferable pain from Indigestion, Stomach and Bowel trouble. Death seemed inevitable when doctors and all remedies failed. At length I was induced to try Electric Bitters, and the result was miraculous. I improved at once, and now I am completely recovered." For Liver, Kidney, Stomach and Bowel troubles Electric Bitters is the only medicine. Only 50 cents. It is guaranteed by R. R. BELLAMY, druggist. †

ERNEST HAYWOOD GRANTED BAIL.

In Jail at Raleigh Under Indictment for the Murder of Ludlow Skinner.

THE BAIL FIXED AT $10,000.

Haywood Congratulated—Some Cheering in the Court Room—Trial of the Case Set for Week of July 13 Went to His Mother's Home.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

RALEIGH, N. C., June 3.—At noon to day Ernest Haywood, the lawyer indicted for the murder of Ludlow Skinner here, on February 21st, was granted bail in the sum of ten thousand dollars under habeas corpus proceedings. Haywood's countenance did not change as the decision was announced.

There was some cheering in the court room as the result was announced. The bond was immediately made and on it nine sureties justified in the sum of $70,000 dollars. Many out of town people telegraphed asking to go on the bond.

Haywood was congratulated by many friends and immediately after the bond was accepted was driven in a closed carriage to his mother's home. The trial of the case is set for the week of July 13th.

Two street fights have already taken place between witnesses on the opposing sides in this case.

BIDS FOR NEW WARSHIPS.

Opened at the Navy Department for Construction of the Minnesota, Vermont and Kansas.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, June 3.—Bids were opened at the Navy Department today for the construction of the Minnesota, Vermont and Kansas, the three 16,000 ton battleships authorized by the last Congress, each to cost not exceeding $4,212,000.

The Newport News Shipbuilding Company, of Newport News, Va., were the lowest bidders for one vessel, the William Cramp & Son Ship and Engine Building Company were the only bidders for more than one ship. Following are the bids:

Newport News Shipbuilding Company one vessel, department's plans, to be completed in forty-two months from date of contract, $4,110,000; William Cramp and Son Ship and Engine Building Company, one vessel, department's plans, to be completed in forty-two months, $4,190,000; or two vessels, department plans, in same time, $4,181,000 each. Fall River Ship and Engine Building Company, Quincy, Mass., one vessel, department's plans forty-two months, $4,179,000. Eastern Shipbuilding Company, New London, Conn., one vessel, forty-two months, $4,192,000; New York Shipbuilding Company, one vessel, department's plans, forty-two months, $4,156,000.

It is supposed that the unsettled labor conditions throughout the country is the cause of the small number of bidders, and for the fact that only one company bid on more than one ship.

These battleships willbe the most powerful vessels of the American navy. They will have a required speed of eighteen knots and a displacement of 16,000 tons.

THE T. PERCY JONES MURDER.

Bail in the Sum of Five Thousand Dollars Each Granted to the Six Men in Jail at Wilson, N. C.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

RALEIGH, N. C., June 3.—The six men—J. B. Piver, W. H. Rich, Gilbert Ward, John Allen, W. W. Barnes and George Whitley—imprisoned in Wilson jail and indicted for the murder of T. Percy Jones, an Arkansas insurance agent, with five others previously allowed bail at twelve hundred dollars each, were today granted bail in the sum of $5,000 each.

Judge Brown says in his decision that the purpose shown in breaking into Jones' room was not to murder, but to drive him from Wilson, an unlawful act. In such a case, where murder ensues, he holds that though a conspiracy has been entered into, yet under the laws of North Carolina it is murder in the second degree, and this is bailable.

In his opinion, Judge Brown declares that the judges have it in their discretion to grant bail in any case, without exception. He states that the charge against the men is serious, and that for this reason he fixes the bail at $5,000 each.

TWO CURES.

FLORENCE, S. C., Aug. 18, 1902.

Gentlemen:—I began to suffer from rheumatism about three years ago, and had it very bad in my limbs. At times I could hardly walk. Was treated by a physician without benefit. More than a year ago, Mr. George Wilson, an engineer on the Coast Line, living in Florence, told me that "RHEUMACIDE" cured him. I got a bottle and it benefitted me. I took five bottles and am now as well as I ever was in my life. I regard "RHEUMACIDE" as a great medicine. I know of others it has cured.

Truly,
S. T. BURCH.

DARLINGTON, S. C., Aug. 19th, 1902.

Gentlemen:—About two years ago I had a very severe attack of inflammatory rheumatism. I suffered great pain and was confined to my bed for five weeks. During the time I was treated by two Physicians without permanent relief. Capt. Harker, a conductor on the Atlantic Coast Line heard of my condition and sent me two bottles of "RHEUMACIDE." I began to take it and in a week I got up and walked on crutches. After taking three bottles of the remedy I got entirely well and went back to my business.

I personally know of a number of other bad cases that were cured by the use of your medicine, in this town and vicinity. It is all that you claim for it.

Truly, J. L. BISKRON.

INCUBATORS VERSUS HENS.

Reasons Why the Former Are Better For Hatching Purposes.

The day is past when the extensive poultryman tries to hatch with hens, as the way is entirely too slow. By the old way when he wanted to set 100 or 200 eggs, as the case might be, he had to find nine or eighteen broody hens and as many separate nests. Then they must each be tested with artificial eggs to see if they all really were in earnest, and this took nearly a week, and consequently this much time was lost.

The incubator saves this time, and one will do the work of all those hens. Then after the hens were set they must be fed and watered daily and let out for exercise for at least fifteen or twenty minutes, and then their keeper must see that each one gets on her own nest. This must be done daily for about twenty-six days, including the test days, and yet I have said nothing about dusting for lice and the washing of some of the eggs which are sure to become dirty and the repairing of nests as a further result.

If all hens would behave just alike, the task would not be quite so hard, but they will not, as some are overanxious and continually fuss and turn their eggs and break them in their efforts to do well, no matter what kind of nest they have. The incubator is not subject to this failing, but stays quietly in its place, and no broken eggs or crushed chicks are found. The best incubators require but five or ten minutes' attention daily and can be kept in a room of the dwelling or outshed near by and can be looked after very easily, while a sitting hen is such a disagreeable thing that she is best kept at a distance. The incubator has another strong point in its favor from the fact that it is willing to sit when wanted, and this is a matter of no small note, as the chick that is ready for sale when broiler prices are highest is the money maker of the market chickens, while the early pullet is the winter-egg producer and prize taker at the fair in the fall.

Of a certainty if you use incubators as hatchers you must use brooders as mothers, and this leaves the hens entirely free to do their best instead of running and eating with chicks and laying up fat which ought to go toward filling the egg basket. Chickens raised by artificial means escape the chance of being filled with lice before they are fairly out of the shell and being trampled to death by the mother hen and living in dirty quarters, for one hen will make more dirt in a day than twenty-five young chicks.—F. Baugie in American Poultry Journal.

He Knew Chickens.

Mr. Suburb—What on earth are you trying to do, neighbor?

Mr. Nextdoor—Merely taking down a little of this fence so that I can move my chicken house over into your yard.

"Eh? My yard?"

"Yes. I like to be neighborly and considerate of other people's feelings, you know."

"But—er"—

"Yes. You shan't have any more cause to complain about my chickens scratching up your yard."

"But you are moving your whole house over on to my property."

"That's the idea. As soon as the chickens find their house in your yard they'll conclude that you own them and will spend the rest of their natural lives scratching in my yard, you know."—Pearson's Weekly.

Clean Incubator Eggs.

It is not necessary to wash eggs before putting them into the incubator unless they have considerable dirt adhering to them, in which case it is better to not use them at all. Ordinarily, however, it will not injure eggs to wash them gently with clear lukewarm water.

TERRIBLE STRAIN.

Wilmington People Undergo the Pressure Every Day.

Many trades and lines of business impose a terrible daily strain on the kidneys. They can't withstand it forever. They become irritated and inflamed, and the back warns you. Don't neglect it because its "only a backache." The kidneys are diseased and cry for help through the back. A well known Wilmington railroad man tells how relief may be found.

W. G. Evans, engineer on the Atlantic & Yadkin R. R., residing at 307 North 4th St., says: "My back has bothered me a good bit right across the small of it, so bad at times I could scarcely run my engine and the jarring affected me simply awful. I rubbed my back with liniments, wore plasters and took medicines, but it was the same old story. Finally I learned about Doan's Kidney Pills and my wife went up to Bellamy's drug store and got a box. Their use relieved me immediately. They are a good remedy for the back and kidneys and no mistake. I have not had a return of the backache since using Doan's Kidney Pills."

PROFITS IN CAPONS.

They Are Not So Large as Formerly. A Few Pointers.

The demand, consequently the market, for capons is a peculiar one. While there is a very limited demand during the entire year, the bulk of them are sold between the holidays and spring. The turkey holds the place of honor at Thanksgiving, divides it with ducks and geese at Christmas and New Year's, and when these are past there is more inquiry for capons, which continues till April or May. So little call is there for them outside of this season that many if not all dealers cease quoting prices at other times.

The profit in capons is a mooted question. It will not pay to perform the operation on any but the larger breeds, and there are many individuals and many localities where it will not pay at all. While good capons usually sell for somewhat higher prices than roasting chickens, the difference in price between the two is less than formerly. In Boston it is said that the large part of the capons are dressed clean and sold as "south shore roosters." A capon must be fed for so long a time before marketing that the feed bill eats up a large part of the extra price.

Many poultrymen say that there is more profit in keeping pullets for eggs in the space that would be occupied by capons. But locality and circumstance must decide this point. A poor capon will bring no more than a chicken. The small sizes of capons, about five or six pounds, sell quite readily, but at lower prices. The large ones weighing nine, ten and twelve pounds, or even more, bring higher prices per pound. They take the place of turkeys to a considerable extent.

The methods of dressing vary somewhat for different markets, and it is wise for the grower to learn from the dealer or commission merchant in the market to which he purposes shipping as to any special demands. They are usually—and always for best markets—dry picked. It is customary with most growers to leave on the feathers of the neck, tail and wings. Some leave on more than others, but the carcass must show up its plump proportions and rich yellow color. For they must be well fattened. Sometimes I have seen capons in market which were well grown and fattened, but which had been scalded, badly dressed, feathers all off and which sold for no more than the same grade of chickens. A little extra care in dressing and packing would have paid handsomely. Dry picking is something that it seems impossible to teach except by actual practice. In short, it is a sort of knack with some people.—F. H. Valentine in American Agriculturist.

How to Repair Graniteware.

Graniteware is universally used, and the best brands will get holes in the bottom. I mend my own, unless the holes are too large, by using a short copper rivet. Put the rivet through the hole, place the washer on the end, put the article to be mended on something hard, hammer until the rivet is perfectly tight, and the utensil will not leak when it is used.

How to Wash Chamois Leather.

Never rub soap on chamois leather. Instead soak for ten minutes when dirty in a lather made of one heaped tablespoonful of soap jelly, one teaspoonful of liquid ammonia and half a gallon of hot water in which you can comfortably bear your hands. Then squeeze and souse in thin suds, next in a similar suds prepared in the same way and finally rinse in warm water softened with a little ammonia. Of course, if rainwater is available no ammonia will be needed. Dry in a windy place, rubbing frequently to soften the leather.

How to Make Lemon Ginger Sorbet.

To make this boil together for five minutes a quart of water and a pound of sugar. Add the juice of three lemons and set aside to cool. When quite cold, add half a cupful of finely chopped preserved ginger and four tablespoonfuls of sirup. Turn into the freezer and freeze slowly until of a mush-like consistency.

How to Cure Blackheads.

For blackheads bathe the face at night with water as hot as can be borne without scalding. Use castile soap and a flesh brush and give your face a thorough wash. Rinse with clear cold water and then massage with mutton tallow, which must be warmed as you use it. Rub it in thoroughly. In the morning wash the face with warm water only—no soap—and give it a dash of cold water. Never use powder or other cosmetics and avoid ill cooked, greasy or rich foods.

How to Cleanse Sponges.

When a sponge gets slimy and disagreeable to the touch, it can be restored to its original condition by the application of a raw potato. Cut a potato in halves and rub the sponge with the portions; then wash it thoroughly with water, and the slimy feeling will have quite disappeared.

COTTON MARKETS.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, June 3.—The cotton market opened firm at an advance of four to seven points, and while not active showed further firmness immediately following the call under better Liverpool cables, moderate receipts for the day and covering, in connection with buying orders from Southern sources, notably from New Orleans, the headquarters of the bull leader, where the market closed owing to the holiday. Speculation was not active, but the bears seemed disinclined to sell freely owing to the uncertainty of the showing to be made in the monthly report of the government tomorrow, and the bulls met little opposition, prices going up quite readily to a level not five and ten points higher. At this point demand fell off and there was enough realizing to impart an easier tone to values, which sagged off from four to seven points from the best of the morning. Then came another rally under renewed covering, brought about by the moderate estimates for to-morrow's receipts and the low temperature recorred in important sections of the belt, which were thought likely to retard growth, and the market up to the beginning of the last hour ruled about steady at a little over last night's finals. Following this, however, there was more active selling for both accounts, attended by considerable talk of a better government report than expected, and consequently a report which had been over-discounted, and prices were forced down to a new low level for the day, closing at about the lowest except July, which recovered four points of its loss, just before the finish. The market was finally steady, net two points higher to eight points lower. Sales futures were estimated at 100,000 bales.

Mr. Waterhouse's Economy

[Original.]

"Lionel," said young Mrs. Waterhouse six months after their marriage and when her trousseau was beginning to show the first signs of giving out, "I need a pair of shoes."

"Certainly, my love." And he handed her $5.

"Lionel," said the wife a few days later, "I find my hat for the coming season is old fashioned. I fear that I shall have to get another."

"Of course you will. How much do you want?"

"A hat may cost anything you please to give, even $2, but I'll need a few spring waists. Then there's the trimming for my blue dress that I'm going to have made over, and"—

"How much, dear?"

"Well, I think I'll need about $13."

A frown came to the husband's face, but he said nothing, handing his wife $15. She saw the frown and knew that one of the hardships of marriage had come, the asking for money for other than household expenses.

"Lionel," said the poor woman a year later, "I'm tired asking you for money with which to buy my clothes. For a time I tried to economize in dress, but when you saw that my hats were out of fashion and my jackets and dresses were shabby you didn't like it, so I find myself between two fires. Isn't there some fund from which I could draw a stated amount?"

"To tell the truth, my dear, we need to economize more than ever this year, as my business is not so flourishing, but I won't ask you to do it. I'll do it myself. I'll figure up just what we'll draw monthly and turn it all over to you. As I have clothes enough to last a year you'll have the use of all the income."

The wife gladly accepted the terms, and on the beginning of the next month her husband turned over to her the amount agreed upon.

"Don't you want any of it, dear?" she asked meekly.

"I have a 'quarter' in my pocket. That 'll do for car fare."

"But your luncheon?"

"Oh, yes; well, you might let me have a 'quarter' for that."

The money was paid over, and Mr. Waterhouse, after giving his wife the marital kiss, started down town.

Five cents of his money went for car fare, 10 cents for apples which he proposed to eat for the benefit of his liver, while 10 cents more was considered necessary for a cigar. At noon he went round to his down town lunch club.

"Hello, old man!" said Owen Carter, one of his clients. "Let's lunch together."

"Oh, I'm not going to eat much today. I'm not hungry."

Nevertheless they sat down together. "What do you say to dividing a pint of claret?" asked Carter.

"Why, I've made it a rule not to drink anything before dinner."

"Since when?" asked Carter, looking up, surprised.

Now, Carter was an important factor in Waterhouse's business, and the latter saw at once that any stinginess on his part might lead to bad results, so he said:

"But that needn't stand in the way. Waiter, a pint of Pontet-Canet."

By good luck Waterhouse got through the luncheon with only 20 cents over and above the amount given him by his wife for the purpose and returned to his office. In the afternoon he received a note requiring a telephone reply. This cost him 10 cents, which he agreed to pay the next day. He had scarcely returned to his office when a young girl with a wan face entered and begged him to help her by buying a five cent package of court plaster. He ground his teeth when he remembered that his money was gone—more than gone.

Then he found it necessary to see a man whose office was at the other end of the city. Not having money for car fare and no one being near from whom to borrow, he walked there and back, a distance of three miles. When 5 o'clock came, he locked his desk and dragged himself over another two miles to his home. He had at times been disappointed to see a dissatisfied look on his wife's face when he reached home. Today it was transferred to his own. His wife was serene.

The next day he got on famously, spending only 10 cents for car fare and 10 cents for tobacco, for he gave up cigars. He went home radiant. The third day he received a notice that each member of his class in college was invited to pay a dollar toward the building of a new dormitory. It was simply impossible for him to refuse. Then came a lady acquaintance and sold him a ticket for 50 cents to a church fair. As soon as she had gone he looked in his drawer for paper on which to reply to the college matter and found none. The stamp box also was empty. Seventy cents was expended for the two articles. He economized by buying 20 cents' worth of stamps instead of a dollar's worth, as usual, and was obliged to send again in two days. At luncheon he tried to dodge Carter, but Carter, who suspected that he was getting stingy, got hold of him and forced him to divide a three dollar lunch. But the most absurd infraction of his economical effort was the purchase of a razor offered to him by a peddler for $5 for which he satirically offered $1.50. On going home he became demoralized, figuring that his expenditures for the day amounted to $5.10, and to drown remorse stopped for a cocktail and a cigar. His wife smelled his breath and when he mentioned his expenditures called him wasteful. This led to their first quarrel.

The next day the husband reassumed the exchequer, and the wife has since been wearing her old clothes.

ROGER T. HOWELL.

How to Crystallize Fruit.

To make crystallized fruit or nuts boil one cup of granulated sugar and one cup of boiling water together for half an hour. Then dip the point of a skewer into the sirup and then into cold water. If the thread formed breaks off brittle, the sirup is ready. The sirup must never be stirred and must boil slowly, not furiously. When done, set the saucepan in boiling water or pour the sirup into a bowl placed in hot water, to keep the sirup from candying. Take the prepared fruit or nuts on the point of a large needle or fine skewer, dip them into the sirup and then lay them on a dish which has been lightly buttered or oiled or string them on a thread, and after dipping in the sirup suspend them by the thread.

Riches Versus Luck.

Wig—Would you rather be born lucky or rich?

Wag—I'd rather be born rich. Then you don't have to be lucky.—Exchange.

Early Birds.

Early birds are all right if we are prepared to properly care for them, and if not the April and May hatched chick will outstrip them in the race. The most important factor in early hatches is to get fertile eggs. The breeding pens should consist of birds that have not been previously mated for some time, and in the case of show birds care should be taken to see that they are vigorous, healthy and fully recovered from any setback they may have sustained as a result of confinement in the showroom. A smaller number of females should be placed in the pen than usual, and the daily ration should not be lacking in animal and green food. The houses should be comfortably warm, and the eggs should be gathered as soon as laid and kept where they will not be injured by freezing weather. The fowls should be induced to exercise and scratch for most of their food. Those that stand around huddled up in a corner of the house or on the perch will lay few fertile eggs.

Growth in Poultry Industry.

It is gratifying to note that the prosperity which the poultry industry has enjoyed the past two years is leading to a very general disposition to improve the flocks. Breeders of pure bred poultry who let the people know what they have are getting plenty of orders, and the stock is going to those who produce the bulk of our poultry—the plain farmers of the land. There is more of a demand today for utility poultry than ever before, and the fancier who breeds for the highest utility is the one the farmer is after. Of course fancy points can be added to the useful qualities of poultry, and breed characteristics should be preserved, but the average producer wants eggs and meat and the breeds that will furnish them most economically. These essentials should never be sacrificed to any more fancy.—Stockman and Farmer.

Bug Death

Kills Potato, Squash and Cucumber Bugs, Currant and Tomato Worms, and all bugs and worms that chew the leaves of plants.

BUG DEATH is a tenacious powder, very fine, like dust, adheres to the vine, and is almost impossible to wash off.

BUG DEATH can be applied dry with Perfection Shaker or a coarse cloth, or, what is better, mixed with water at the rate of 1 pound to 5 gallons water, and sprayed with any of the hand sprayers.

Bug Death Kills the bugs. Feeds the plant. Increases the yield. Produces better quality.

The phenomenal sale BUG DEATH has had during the comparatively short time it has been on the American and Canadian markets, and the hearty endorsement given by truckers and merchants throughout both countries must convince the most skeptical that it has all the merits claimed for it.

THURSDAY MORNING, JUNE 4.

GREAT NEED OF NURSES AT GAINESVILLE, GA.

Men and Women Working for Alleviation of Suffering--The Death Total Nearly Ninety—Funerals Yesterday.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

GAINESVILLE, GA., June 3.—This city has to-night practically recovered from the stupifying effects of Monday's terrible wind storm. With a large number of the dead already buried and with the work of relief proceeding rapidly and methodically, the streets are again assuming their normal appearance and the business of the community is going on as usual. The work of the citizens of Gainesville, both men and women, has been heroic in the alleviation of suffering, and the response from Atlanta and other cities in the shape of supplies and financial assistance has been no less marked. Physicians are now here in sufficient numbers to attend all the needs of the injured, but there is yet great need for antiseptics and other medical supplies. There is urgent necessity for more nurses. Physicians who have visited Gainesville urge that all who are in a position to do so volunteer their services at once. Transportation and board are being furnished all volunteers, so that while there will be no compensation except the satisfaction of doing a noble work for suffering humanity, there will be no expense.

Secretary of War Root has telegraphed Senator Clay and Congressman Taft that the government will send tents and such other temporary assistance as may seem necessary.

About sixty funerals of victims were held last night and to-day. There was no attempt at any sort of ceremonial; in many cases not even a clergyman was present. The bodies were rapidly consigned to the earth with a hastily uttered prayer or the singing of a hymn. For half an hour almost one funeral a minute was conducted in the desolated city of mill cottages, where the tornado wrought its greatest havoc.

The latest tabulation indicates that the death total will be between eighty-five and ninety, the estimate of one hundred given last night having been somewhat excessive. Six more dead bodies were identified to-day—Ora English, Odom Skinner, Paul Waddell, S. D. Lovern, Lula Jackson and a boy named Adams. Eight dead bodies are still unidentified.

Victor Montgomery, of Spartanburg, S. C., president of both the Pacolet and the Gainesville cotton mills, said the Pacolet mills would be put in running order again at once. Considerable time must of course elapse before the Gainesville mills, whose plant was almost demolished, can be again in operation.

KENTUCKY MURDER TRIALS.

Order Moving the Cases from Jackson to Morgan County Withdrawn—Jury from an Adjoining County.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

JACKSON, KY., June 3.—The order changing the trial of the Jett and White murder cases to Morgan county has been withdrawn and the cases will be tried here as soon as a jury can be summoned from an adjoining county.

The jail guard was called out last night by a number of shots in the immediate vicinity. The shots were fired in the air and evidently done merely to annoy the soldiers. Otherwise the night passed quietly.

Curtis Jett and Thomas White, the alleged murderers of James Marcum, were brought into court by a file of soldiers to-day. Sheriff Callahan shook hands with both prisoners very cordially. The court's order of yesterday to move their trial had not been entered and upon the suggestion of Commonwealth Byrd, on account of the inconvenience and danger to witnesses entailed, the court directed that the order be not entered and that the cases go to trial here. The judge will appoint an officer to go to another county and get a jury.

THE NORFOLK STRIKE.

Traffic in the Harbor Gradually Getting Back to its Normal State.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NORFOLK, VA., June 3.—The traffic in Norfolk harbor is gradually getting back to its normal state. Many of the boats which were temporarily laid off the first of the week when the engineers refused to work longer at the old scale of wages, have been placed in commission again. In some instances the vessel owners have acceded to the demands of the engineers and in others the operators of the boats have effected other arrangements. It is believed that in a few more days all the boats will be in use again.

ANTHRACITE COAL MINERS.

Conventions to Meet June 15th to Determine the Strike Question.

WILKESBARRE, PA., June 3.—At the morning session of the three anthracite boards of the United Mine Workers, there was little done outside of outlining plans as to what course was best to pursue. This afternoon they met again when they decided to hold a joint convention of miners at Pottsville on June 15th for the purpose of determining whether or not a general suspension of work shall be declared.

ACCIDENT TO AN EXCURSION STEAMER

The Lives of About 250 Sunday School Children from Hannibal, Mo, Imperilled.

FOUR PERSONS DROWNED.

Steamer Ran Into the Stone Pier of a bridge and Sank--The barge Floated Down Stream—Children Rescued by People in boats.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

HANNIBAL, MO, June 3.—Four lives were lost by drowning here to day in the collision of the steamer Flying Eagle, towing a barge filled with Sunday school excursionists with a pier of the Hannibal bridge. The dead: Lonnie B. Curts, aged 14; Martha Coppedge, aged 8; Harry Echenberger, aged 17; Peggy Harvey, cook on the steamer.

About 250 children from the Park Methodist church Sunday school, at Hannibal, had boarded the barge and a number were on the steamer. The excursion left Hannibal to run to Quincy and afford a view of the swollen Mississippi. As the boat swung out into the river the swift current seized the craft and despite all efforts bore it straight down toward the stone pier of the bridge nearest the shore. With a crash the steamer was hurled against the pier and wrecked, but did not sink immediately. For a time it was wedged against the pier by the current and held, while the terror-stricken children and the accompanying adults climbed up the pier to the bridge. In this way almost half of the passengers were saved. Before all could reach safety the barge was veered around by the current and finally swung loose from the pier and floated down stream. In the sudden swinging out of the barge the three children were thrown into the water and swept away to their deaths.

Further down the stream the catastrophe had been witnessed and at hand were a number of skiffs and row boats. With one thought these boats were manned and the miniature fleet then shot out into the swollen stream to meet the barge. The rescuing boats surrounded the barge and the children were quickly taken from it and were safely landed.

The cause of the accident was the blowing out of a cylinder head of the boat's engine, disabling her and placing the craft at the mercy of the swift current.

MISSISSIPPI RIVER RISING AT ST. LOUIS.

Occupants of Houses Along the River Front Driven Out--Conditions on the Illinois Side More Serious.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

ST. LOUIS, June 3.—Slowly the Mississippi river crept up the levee to-day inch by inch until between sunrise and sunset the gauge marked a rise of six inches and to night stood at 31.7 feet. The surface of the swiftly flowing water was thickly strewn with drift wood, which seemed to increase as the dray drew on, indicating that the crest of the flood is approaching. A number of frame houses submerged to the roofs passed St. Louis and now and then a dead animal, but no human beings were seen although a vigilant watch has been kept.

In South St. Louis several houses along the river's edge have been flooded, but the occupants have removed their property and vacated. On the Illinois side there is a more serious flood condition. Venice, situated north of East St. Louis, is in almost immediate danger of inundation. A rise of a foot more will submerge the west portion of the town and manufacturing industries will suffer heavy losses.

Between Venice and East St. Louis is a low land area used as farm lands. Water now covers this area to a depth of twelve feet, forming a lake about a mile square. Many "squatter" families have been forced out, leaving everything behind.

People along the river have received a general warning, and it is believed that all in danger have escaped to higher ground.

JEWS PREPARED FOR DEFENCE

Have Armed Themselves and Organized in Odessa and Other Russian Towns. Both Men and Women.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

BERLIN, June 3.—Advices received here from Odessa, under date of May 20th, say the Jews there are now prepared to defend themselves intelligently. Several thousand revolvers have been imported since the Kisheneff massacre, so that at present almost every Jew, man or woman, is armed. Those who were unable to buy weapons received them as gifts from the defence committee. A system of communication has also been agreed upon, so as to spread a warning throughout the city when there is an outbreak of violence on any ground. Families residing near each other will concentrate for defence and every second man will join what might be called an expeditionary corps, to take part in the aggressive defence where rioting is actually going on. The Jewish safety committee is also reported to have arranged with the working men's associations for aid in the event of outbreaks. Arms have been distributed from Odessa to the Jews in other cities of Russia.

The Tageblatt to-day prints a dispatch from St. Petersburg announcing that a law was published there late day giving a list of 101 towns in Russia in which Jews are allowed to acquire land and live without restriction. Jews are temporarily forbidden to buy land outside these places where they will be legally settled.

STORM IN IDAHO.

Terrific Cloudburst Accompanied by Wind and Hail—Two Persons Drowned.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEZ PERCE, IDAHO, June 3.—A terrific cloudburst, accompanied by a heavy storm of wind and hail, occurred at the head of Lawyer's Canon, thirty-one miles southwest of here, yesterday. Hail fell to the depth of twenty inches along the canon and destroyed grain on a strip two miles wide and six miles long. The only deaths reported are those of Joe Demissey and his sister Isabella, who were drowned in the flood of water which swept down the canon twelve to fifteen high, carrying everything before it.

INVESTIGATION OF POSTOFFICE SCANDALS.

The Case of A. W. Machen Not Yet Before the Grand Jury—Bristow's Reply to Tulloch Not Made Public.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, June 3.—It was expected that the case of August W. Machen, former superintendent of the free delivery system, Postoffice Department, would be taken up by the United States grand jury to-day, but the jury convened and adjourned without considering the case. No business was laid before the jury, an adjournment being taken until to-morrow.

Postmaster General Payne stated to-day that the reply of Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Bristow to the Tulloch charge would not be made public until the report of the investigation of the Washington postoffice is submitted. This report, he said, would show the condition of the Washington postoffice to-day as well as the conditions which prevailed at the time complained of by Mr. Tulloch. Mr. Payne expressed surprise at the failure to present Mr. Machen's case to the grand jury to-day but indicated his belief that there would be no delay on the part of the grand jury when the matter is placed before it.

Postmaster General Payne to-day made public the decision of Attorney General Knox on which Mr. Payne based his award of the coal contract of the department to Machen Brothers of this city, of which August W. Machen, then general superintendent of the free delivery system, is a member. The award was made to that firm, as the lowest bidders, during the coal famine last Winter, and newspaper publications at the time charged that the award to a firm of which one of the officials of the department was a member was in violation of the statutes. The decision is dated January 15th. The attorney general says:

"While I am of the opinion that you are not forbidden by any statute from awarding the contract under consideration to the lowest bidder, I must not be understood as advising you that you are under any legal obligation to do so. The matter is one of administrative judgment and discretion."

The agent cables that the steamer, which had eighty persons on board, was lost. The bodies of some of the Arequipa's crew, he adds, have been washed ashore.

TOPEKA FLOOD SITUATION.

River Rapidly Falling—The Death List. Governor Issues Proclamation Calling for Help—Relief Fund.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

TOPEKA, KS., June 3.—The Kansas river is rapidly falling. In a few more days the work of rehabilitating North Topeka may begin. The situation to-night may be summarized thus:

At 2 o'clock the river had fallen four feet. Total number of known dead, 22; unidentified dead, 5; reported dead, 66.

Governor Bailey has issued a proclamation calling for help and asking that contributions be sent to William Sims, treasurer. The general relief fund has passed $14,000. The Elks' fund has passed $4,000. The fund in the hands of the governor now amounts to $3,500.

"It is expected that the water supply will be resumed some time to-night. All who are held in buildings in North Topeka are safe and comfortable. No one in the flooded district is in danger. The homeless are being well cared for. Over 200 deputies are guarding property in North Topeka.

The only railroads operating out of Topeka are the Missouri Pacific, south, and the Santa Fe, west.

The governor may call an extra session of the Kansas Legislature to provide State relief for all sufferers from floods in Kansas. Governor Bailey hopes his appeal for help will bring enough money to meet the emergency. If it fails, he said, he would probably ask the legislature to make the necessary appropriations.
